

Please do not allow further deregulation of media ownership in this country. It is already difficult to get an unbiased picture of the news with the large media conglomerates dominating the air waves. More deregulation would give unfair advantage to the large conglomerates and reduce the variety available to the nation.